Guide to Using the Land Use Bylaw

The Land Use Bylaw establishes regulations for how land can be developed within the Summer Village of Crystal Springs. Regulations vary depending on the location and type of development. A development permit must be obtained prior to any new construction, structural renovations, opening of a new business and/or changing the use of an existing building. Development permits provide municipal approval for the use of land as well as the placement, size and location of new buildings or structures. In addition to the Land Use Bylaw, other bylaws, regulations and policies of the Summer Village of Crystal Springs, Provincial and Federal governments must also be followed.

The following steps may assist the user of the Land Use Bylaw:

LOCATE	Locate the subject property on the Land Use Districts Map in Section 14. This map divides the Summer Village into five different land use districts. Take note of which land use district the subject property is located in. Note that land use districts are often referred to as “Zones” or “Zoning.” In order to conform to the language of the Municipal Government Act, this Land Use Bylaw uses the terms “district” and “districting.”
CHECK	Check the Table of Contents and locate the land use district you are interested in. Each land use district is listed in Section 10. In each land use district you will find a list of permitted and discretionary uses, subdivision regulations, development regulations and other miscellaneous regulations. This determines how and what can be developed in any given land use district. There are definitions in Part 2 that should also be consulted to ensure that words and terms used in the Land Use Bylaw are understood.
REVIEW	Review the Table of Contents to see if there are any regulations that apply to the situation or use in question. For example, Section 9 contains regulations affecting accessory buildings, recreational vehicles, sea cans, and suites, among many others.
DISCUSS	Discuss your proposal or concern with Summer Village Administration. Administration is trained and eager to assist you with your development, subdivision, or general inquiry issues and to explain procedures. They can also assist with other situations such as enforcement or a Land Use Bylaw amendments.

Please note that this guide is only intended to assist users and does not form part of the Summer Village of Crystal Springs Land Use Bylaw.

- 5.8.8 The applicant is responsible for ascertaining that the lowest finished floor elevation in either the basement or main floor in the principal and accessory buildings, where applicable, is high enough to ensure a gravity flow connection to the design or existing sewer elevations at the property line. In the even that gravity sewer flow is not possible or desirable; the applicant is responsible for installing a pump to discharge sewage in accordance with the Alberta Building Code and Plumbing Regulations.
- 5.8.9 To post in a location visible from both directions the municipal address of the property.

- 5.9.1 A Development Permit comes into effect immediately if all proposed development is for a permitted use and the Bylaw was not relaxed or varied.
- 5.9.2 Despite the preceding section, a development permit involving construction does not come into effect until the plans for the building have been approved by the person appointed by Council as Building Inspector and a building permit has been issued by that person.
- 5.9.3 A Development Permit for a discretionary use, or for which a provision of the By-law has been relaxed or waived, does not come into force until 14 days after the date of its issue, and during this time any person affected by the proposed development may appeal the decision of the Development Authority. Any development proceeded with by the applicant prior to the expiry of the 14 day period is done solely at the risk of the applicant;
- 5.9.4 The Development Permit will not be valid unless and until all conditions of the approval (except those of a continuing nature) have been fulfilled;
- 5.9.5 When a Development Appeal is filed against the issuance of a Development Permit or against any condition on a Development Permit, the Development Permit will be suspended and deemed invalid pending the withdrawal of the appeal or the final decision of the Board. Where a subsequent appeal is taken to the Court of Queen's Bench pursuant to Section 688 of the Act, the Development Permit will be further suspended and deemed invalid pending the final decision of the Court and the completion of any process directed by the Court.

5.9.6 Unless an extension has previously been granted by the Development Authority, a Development Permit will expire and will no longer be valid after 1 year from the date of its issuance or within an extended period granted by a Development Officer if:

- c. Despite the preceding section, at the discretion of the Development Authority, a building may be constructed in stages over a period of time exceeding one year providing that the applicant submits a construction schedule as part of the application.
- d. All construction relative to a Development Permit shall be completed within one year following the issuing or within one year following the final decision of the Board. The Development Authority may, on application made prior to the expiry of this one year period and at its discretion, extend the period for one more year; and,
- e. If a Development Permit is issued for a Site for which any other Development Permit has been previously issued, all previous Development Permits will be invalid to the extent the physical aspects of the newly approved Development Permit conflict or could not occur simultaneously on the Site in conformity with the provision of this By-law.
- f. The Development Authority may modify, suspend or cancel a development permit which apparently has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, or by failure to disclose pertinent information, or been issued in error.
- g. If a development permit has been revoked, the applicant may appeal this decision to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board in the same manner as a Stop Order under Section 645 of the Act.

5.9.7 A Development Permit does not come into effect until at least twenty-one (21) days have elapsed from the date it is granted and in any event does not come into effect until the plans for the building have been approved by an accredited Safety Codes Inspector and all necessary permits pertaining to the construction of the Building have been obtained and copies sent to the Municipality, and posted on site.

5.9.8 If an appeal (which includes an appeal to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board, the Land and Property Rights Tribunal, and the Court of Appeal of Alberta) is filed against a Development Permit, the permit is suspended until the appeal is heard or abandoned.

5.9.9 A Development Permit is valid for one (1) year from the date it comes into effect and work authorized pursuant to a Development Permit must be commenced within six (6) months and completed within twelve (12) months from the date the Development Permit comes into effect. Extensions may be granted at the sole discretion of the Development Authority at a cost of 50% of the original development permit fee.

5.9.10 If it appears to the Development Authority that a Development Permit has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, or has been issued in error, the Development Authority may suspend, revoke or modify the development permit and shall have the right to suspend all construction activity on the site.

5.10. VARIANCES

5.10.1 The Development Authority may grant a variance to reduce the requirements of any use of the Land Use Bylaw and that use will be deemed to comply with this bylaw.

The Development Authority may approve an application for a development permit notwithstanding that the proposed development does not comply with this Bylaw if, in his opinion the proposed development would not:

- a. unduly interfere with the amenities of the neighbourhood; or
- b. materially interfere with or affect the use, enjoyment or value of neighbouring properties; and
- c. the proposed development conforms to the use prescribed for that land or building in the Land Use Bylaw.

5.10.2 A variance shall be considered only where warranted by the merits of the proposed development and in response to irregular parcel lines, parcel shapes or site characteristics which create difficulties in siting structures within the required setback or in meeting the usual bylaw requirements. Except as otherwise provided in this bylaw, there shall be no variance from the following:

- a. Lot coverage; and
- b. Building height.

5.10.3 Where a variance is granted, the nature of the approved variance shall be specifically described in the Development Permit approval.

5.11. ISSUANCE OF COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATES

5.11.1 The applicant for a Compliance Certificate shall provide to the Development Authority a Real Property Report for the site prepared by a registered Alberta Land Surveyor and pay the associated fee.

All Real Property Reports older than two (2) years must include a Statutory Declaration that indicates that no changes have been made to the property since the Real Property Report was prepared. If there have been any changes, however slight, a new and updated Real Property Report is required.

5.11.3 In determining whether a Compliance Certificate can be issued for a site, the Development Authority shall rely on the Real Property Report provided by the applicant. The Development Authority shall not undertake independent site inspections.

5.11.4 The Development Authority may issue a Compliance Certificate when, in their opinion, the building(s) located on a site, and shown on the Real Property Report, are located in accordance with the setback regulations of this By-law and the setbacks specified in any development permit, which may have been issued for the site. The Compliance Certificate shall only cover those buildings and structures, or parts thereof, shown on the Real Property Report submitted by the applicant.

5.11.5 The Development Authority may refuse to issue a Compliance Certificate when, in his opinion, he does not have sufficient information from the applicant to determine if a building(s) located on a site is (are) located in accordance with the yard regulations of this By-law and/or the yards specified in any development permit which may have been issued for the site.

5.11.6 The Development Authority and the Summer Village shall not be liable for any damages arising from the use of a compliance certificate containing errors where the errors are the result of incorrect or incomplete information on the Real Property Report.
